

Values Snap 3 Game

Age 6 years and above

Objective of the game: To understand that there are five human values namely Truth, Love, Peace, Right-Conduct and Non-Violence. Explore different Quotations

Suitable for: 6 Years and over

Number of players: Two to three players.

Materials required: Values Snap3 Cards (Set 1 or Set 2)

- Print the Values Snap Cards (Set 1 or Set 2) back to back (Five copies). The cards can be printed on a card or they can be laminated.
- Cut the cards. There will be Forty Five Cards' with the quotations on the back.

Instructions

1. Hold all the cards with the Card Games side on the top.
2. Mix all the cards by shuffling them.
3. Divide the cards equally between the players.
4. Youngest person starts the game and players take turns clockwise
5. Each player takes the top card from his pile and places it facedown.
6. If the card matches the one already on the top of the pile on the table then the players have to say snap before the other player to collect all the cards in the pile.
7. Before collecting the cards the player has to read the quotation. The quotation is then discussed and the players can ask questions related to it. The game then continues
8. Winner is the player with all the cards.
