

Values Snap 2 Game

Age 5-6 years

Objective of the game: To understand that there are five human values namely Truth, Love, Peace, Right-Conduct and Non-Violence.

Suitable for: 5 to 6 years old

Number of players: Two to three players.

Materials required: Values Snap 2 Cards

- Print the Values Snap Cards (age 5-6 years) back to back (Six copies). The cards can be printed on a card or they can be laminated.
- Cut the cards. There will be Fifty Four Cards (30 Value Cards and 24 Negative Cards).

- Instructions
1. Hold all the cards with the five values symbol on the top.
  2. Mix all the cards by shuffling them.
  3. Divide the cards equally between the players.
  4. Youngest person starts the game and players take turns clockwise
  5. Each player takes the top card from his pile and places it facedown while saying aloud the value on the card.
  6. If the card matches the one already on the top of the pile on the table then the players have to say snap before the other player to collect all the cards in the pile. If there is a negative card then all the cards go to the person who did not say snap or who was the last person to say snap.
  7. Winner is the player with all the cards.
